Sat 17 Feb to Mon 16 Apr	(All day)	From Little Things Big Things Grow by Carly Fischer From Little Things Big Things Grow' is a solo show by Carly Fischer exploring the complex and often contradictory relationship between cultural agency and its commodification in a contemporary, Australian context. Through sculptures that reconstruct some of these ideas from found and fabricated fragments, the exhibition considers how cultural and environmental awareness is re-packaged as contemporary design.	5559 4949 http://www.thewag.com.au/
Fri 23 Feb to Mon 11 Jun	(All day)	6600+ by Sam Leach 6600+ is an abstract representation by Sam Leach of Budj Bim as not only Australia's earliest and largest aquaculture system but also as a cultural and sacred space that symbolises and celebrates the ingenuity and the ongoing Gunditjmara connection to land. The Gunditjmara have been tireless in their advocacy and ongoing commitment for recognition of the international significance of this remarkable site and we encourage everyone to learn from the rich traditions and history of Budj Bim as a significant story in the narrative of South Western Victoria.	5559 4949 http://www.thewag.com.au/

Sat 24 Mar to Sun 3 Jun	(All day)	物の気 (Mono No Ke) by 志村 信裕 (Shimura Nobuhiro) The divinity of natural things is the focus of Japanese artist 志村 信裕 (Shimura Nobuhiro's) first Australian solo exhibition 物の気, 'mono no ke' meaning 'the spirit of things'. 物の気 features work by the artist created in several media, including film, earthenware and text. Each work draws on the Shimura's recent investigation into the Japanese concept of 気 'ki', a term that describes the ancient Shinto (the traditional religion of Japan) understanding of what constitutes life force. 物の気 connects to the Japanese understanding of what constitutes 気, which since ancient times, has included a vast range of ambiguous and permeable flowing states such as 'energy', 'mood' and 'mind'. Unlike in English, 気 or life force, is not confined to natural phenomena and human consciousness. 気 also...	5559 4949 http://www.thewag.com.au/

Sun 15 Apr	2:00 pm	Macdeth Macdeth will blow the dust off your school room Shakespeare and rejuvenate your experience of seeing a true theatre classic. Performed in an immediate, filmic style, it is great for kids and adults who are convinced Shakespeare is going to be unfathomable and boring. Be entertained by the stupidity and skill of Company 13 as they enact the dreadfully bloody tale of Macbeth's passage from a comfortable nobleman to a despised tyrant. A funny, cautionary tale that combines Shakespeare's rich language with a healthy dose of invention and idiocy. A Shakespearian treat performed in an immediate and accessible style.	5559 4999 www.lighthouse theatre.com.au

Thu 19 Apr	8:00 pm	A Town Named War Boy “We hit Cairo like a train! ... Every dirty little alley, every dusty back room bar - the pyramids are marvellous, but I could spend the rest of my days quite happily in the arms of your temptation.” Based on the State Library of NSW’s jaw-dropping collection of First World War diaries, photographs and letters, A Town Named War Boy brings to life the personal accounts of the young men that set sail for the far side of the world. Some of these diaries and letters are finished, others just stop. When you read them you meet the person, see the changes in their hand-writing, feel the indentation of the pen, the smudges of changed thoughts.	5559 4999 lighthouse theatre.com.au

Sat 28 Apr	2:00 pm	Circus Oz - Model Citizens Model Citizens seamlessly blends the risk and beauty of breathtaking physical improbability with theatricality, choreography and Circus Oz's distinct brand of Australian humour. Stunningly lit and driven by a sensational live music soundtrack, Model Citizens unfolds within a cleverly designed model-kit world that challenges perspective, scale and concepts of normality. Over-sized, everyday objects are used as unexpected circus equipment that create an intriguing new playground for the all-human ensemble. Acrobats will back-flip off a giant vertical clothes peg, become tangled in an oversized cotton reel, balance on a house of oversized collapsing cards and fly high in an enormous pair of aerial undies!	5559 4999 www.lighthouse theatre.com.au
